

Covington Education Foundation Scholarships

Covington Education Foundation (potentially renewable)

Scholarship - $1,000 award per year for graduating Holmes High School senior attending an accredited post-secondary institution on a full time basis. Senior must show financial need and potential for success in college. Submit a 200 word essay describing your future plans and why college is necessary to your plans. This scholarship is renewable if the rising college student maintains full time enrollment in an accredited 2-4 year college or university, passes all courses, and maintains a 2.5 grade point average.

Covington Education Foundation (one-time) Scholarship - $1,000

award for graduating Holmes High School senior attending an accredited post-secondary institution on a full time basis. Senior must show financial need and potential for success in college. Submit a 200 word essay describing your future plans and why college is necessary to your plans.